Texas House Speaker, Joe Straus (R-San Antonio) recently released a proclamation appointing Rep. Wayne Smith (R-Baytown) to the newly created House Select Committee on Election Contest. This committee is charged with helping decide the outcome of the contested race for Austin area's State House District 48 seat.

"I am very proud and honored to participate on this House Select Committee on Election Contest," said Smith. "Each member appointed to this committee plays an imperative role in upholding the integrity of the Texas House of Representatives and the Texas election process and I look forward to protecting both to the best of my ability."
